“ She was a wonderful woman. I knew her through my best friend at the time. It was her mom. She made some great ice tea which she loved to drink. I knew her and her wonderful husband in Baumholder Germany. Their daughter Faye and also Tiny their dog who was nicked named T T.. 😊 Glad I have the opportunity to meet this beautiful woman and what great memories she has brought into my life. RIP 🙏

She was a wonderful person. We worked together at Santa Rosa Med. Center and became close friends almost immediately. She was honest, caring, down to earth and so easy to love. It's been 5 years since her passing and I still think of her frequently and miss her dearly. I cherish all the time we spent together...a simple meal...hunting for bargains...and the laughter...she loved to laugh. I feel certain she left a void in the hearts of all who knew and loved her...Prayers to see her again on the other side. Rest in Peace for this lovely lady 🙏
