“ James, Cindy and Carolyn, I am sorry for the loss of your wife and mother. She was a sweet and dear lady and a child of Christ. She was always nice to me and the epitome of a southern belle. Her gracious manner, sweet disposition and charm was always a welcome site for anyone that had the privilege of meeting her. And I consider myself one of the fortunate ones to have known her and to have her as a friend. She is at peace with her God and savior in heaven.

“ Dear Jim & Family, We are saddened to learn of the homegoing of our precious Dot. What wonderful memories we have of times spent in your home and as you came to visit us through the years! We rejoice to know that we will see Dot again when we enter into that "promised land" to be with our Lord forever. What sweet fellowship we will enjoy then. Our prayers are with you as you go through this difficult holiday season and we send our love to all of you.

“ Dear beautiful Berry Family: Know that as family members we are here to help bear your sorrows and to help you remember the joy and grace that dear Sister Dot brought to every one of us and countless others. A famous poet said once: "The sons of Adam are limbs of one another having been created of one essence. When the calamity of time afflicts one limb, the other limbs cannot remain at rest" Surely it is so with us. God bless. Love you all, Cousin Denise Berry
