“ I've just heard of Mrs. Dot's passing. I'm heartbroken for you all; I so wish that I had known sooner. Mrs. Dot was one of the sweetest women that I've ever had the pleasure of knowing. She is such a wonderful part of my childhood memories. Her sweet, kind voice. Her sweet, kind ways. I never saw her that she did not have a smile on her face; I don't even remember ever seeing her upset. I remember her working at the children's clothing store on the square. I can still see her sweet face and hear her sweet voice. Again, I'm so very sorry for the passing of this dear woman.
