“ Just heard the news couple days ago. Had the privilege of working with Duane on my first two indie films. What a Blessing that was. He was already making the professional big budget rounds but made time for my projects. Two guys with a passion for film making from same neck of woods. We even filmed some in his back yard. Couldn't have asked for a better make up fx artist. He was funny, witty, dependable and joyful to be around. Never stressed out & completely cool dude. Always had a solution on the fly when it came to anything make up related. Time passes by and the world keeps rotating but he'll always will be remembered fondly. Until we meet again, my friend.
