

Dwight "D.L." Moody, Jr.

June 8, 1966 - July 22, 2023

Mr. Dwight Leon Moody, Jr., 57, of Newnan, passed away Saturday, July 22, 2023 at Sacred Journey Hospice facility. He was born June 8, 1966 to the late Pastor Dwight Leon Moody, Sr. & the late Peggy Ann Moody.

DL grew up in Newnan, GA and was an inspiration to all. He was a very successful real estate agent for Newnan and was well known for his mentorship to others that were up and coming in the real estate world. He would give his time and efforts to anyone who needed it. DL also loved to work with his hands and had an ability to fix almost anything that was put in front of him. If any of his family or friends expressed to him that they were struggling with something whether it be a broken piece of equipment or just daily life struggles he would drop what he was doing and give you both ears and hands. When he wasn't working on equipment or selling real estate he enjoyed fishing, hunting, and spending time with his family. There was never a dull moment with DL. He was well known for his humor and lighthearted, live life to the fullest attitude. If you were ever worried that something couldn't be fixed he would say, "don't worry, we'll get it figured out." The phrase "give up" was not in his vocabulary. His life was filled with love, laughter, and helping others. He will be greatly missed by all who knew him.

The visitation is Wednesday, July 26, 2023 from 5:00pm until 7:00pm at McKoon Funeral Home, 38 Jackson St., Newnan, GA 30263. The funeral service is Thursday, July 27, 2023 at 11:00am with Pastor Kevin Couch officiating in the chapel of McKoon Funeral Home. His final wishes are to be cremated after the service and his ashes placed into an artificial reef that will be placed off the coast of Mexico Beach, FL where he, his wife, and sons visited frequently over the past years.

Condolences can be expressed online at www.mckoon.com.

Survivors include his wife Melissa Brown Moody of Newnan, GA; sons Zach Moody and wife Charlotte of Wedowee, AL, Tyler Moody and wife Anna of Canton, GA; grandchildren Trina and Sherry Moody; sister Deidra McKnight of Newnan, GA, and several nieces and nephews.

“ I grew up with DL and went to school with him. I never had a cross word with him. I thought of him as a brother more than just a friend. Sometimes I would ride up the street just to see him and talk with him. He knew I was having health problems as well as I knew he was, but he never let it show. When he had this last round, he said I'm gonna whip this just like the first time. I hugged him and said I know you will man. We're both gonna get better and go fishing or something. He smiled and said yes we are. And I left and waved at him as I drove off. That was the last time I saw him.

Ms. Melissa and Tyler and Josh, I want y'all all to know I've lost a dear and precious friend. He was there for me as you boys were , when my mom walked off and was missing those days, and I'll never forget it. When he showed up out there and said We are gonna find your momma, I broke down and cried. He worked himself silly with all that we had and all they had found which wasn't much. He drove me up to AMC in Atl and stayed with me. He was without a doubt one of the best friends a fella could ask for....all through the years.

I'm so sorry you've lost him, I'm sorry I've lost my little buddy, and I will never forget him as long as I live. Deeply saddened for your loss, I'm gonna miss as will a lot of people.

I know I left Deidra out and I'm sorry, I know how close y'all were and I'm sick with sorrow.

I've said enough, I've probably misspelled some stuff for the tears I'm trying to wipe away.

With a big hollow place in my chest , I just very sorry he's gone.
