“ ...for now we see in a mirror dimly, but then face to face. Now I know in part, but then I shall know just as I also am known. 1 Cor 13:12 ...blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God. Matthew 5:8 Although I am sorry for your loss, I am jealous that D.D. was greeted at heavens gates by Phil Webb, Mr. Markley, Flo Blalock, your parents and my dad who loved D.D. so much. I am honored to have grown up with D.D. and your family. There has never been such faithful, loving, beautiful people as the Rainwater's.I cherish even the thought that long ago, when we were young, I listened to D.D. sing and clap his hands to the Lord. We were all blessed to have him in our lives. He will never be forgotten. Lovingly, Brenda Bailey Zavison

“ Todd and Family, I am so sad to hear off DD's passing. I still have fond childhood memories of you both in our younger years in College Park. Mr. Ralph and Ms. Hazel were wonderful neighbors whom our family love so very much. DD always made me smile and laugh, he was indeed a special gift from God. My prayers are with you and I know that you are so thankful to have had a special angel of God for your brother. God Bless and may he comfort you is my prayer. Gail

“ Todd and Trunicia, We can't begin to tell you how sorry we are of the loss of "DD". Everyone of you have been special to us and been part of our family. Your parents were the sweetest people and the most loving you could find. I know they were there with open arms for "DD". He is at home, now. You will be in our thoughts and prayers during this difficult time, and after. May God Bless, Jimmy and Kathi Sumner
