“ My Aunt Edith is someone I will always remember fondly she was my favorite aunt of all. My brother and I spent a lot of time with her when we were growing up and she was a sweet person and had a laugh that was hilarious and made the best cornbread and goulash I ever ate! My prayers go out to all her family she was a true gem that is going to be missed!

“ Dear Nolen Family, Please know you are all in my thoughts and prayers. A kind and loving mother and grandmother is in God's hands watching over her loved one on earth. Few words, if any, can take away the pain of losing a loved one, but when my Aunt passed away last year, my son told me that when we celebrate a loved one's life the healing can begin. Mrs. Nolen was a lovely and special woman in the lives of so many. Judi Seaton
