

Edna Carr

October 20, 1946 - August 6, 2020

Edna Southerland Carr, age 73, passed away Thursday, August 6, 2020 just five short days after her husband Jerry Alton Carr passed away. She was born October 20, 1946 to the late Edgar Southerland and Ethel Jones Southerland. Edna is survived by her son, Scott Carr.

The service celebrating Edna's life is Monday, August 10, 2020 at 7:00 PM in the chapel of McKoon Funeral Home, 38 Jackson Street, in Newnan with Rev. Joe Warnke officiating. The family will receive friends Monday evening from 6:00 PM until service time at the funeral home. Edna will be laid to rest next to Jerry at the Georgia National Cemetery in Canton, GA.

Condolences may be expressed to the family online at www.mkcoon.com.

It was a pleasure and an honor to have known and served our Lord with Edna. She always made sure the paraments, altar cloths, and Communion ware were properly taken care of. It was obvious that she loved our Lord Jesus Christ and our church and its members. I will personally miss the hugs we shared over the years. I rejoice in knowing that I will see her again in heaven.

“ Edna was one of the nicest people I ever met. I never heard her say an unkind word about anyone. She had a host of illnesses and physical problems, but I never heard her dwell on them. She accepted them philosophically, no doubt due to her strong faith in Jesus Christ. She and Jerry are now hand in hand, in heaven forever, with their dear Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

“ I haven't seen Edna in many years, but I have fond memories of our time together at MZHS. She was one of the LD/EBD paraprofessionals. She had amazing patience and the kids loved her. The LD/EBD teachers could always count on Edna. She was a good person and I feel blessed to have shared time with her.

“ Edna was a very sweet lady... I worked at MZHS when she was there. She was always so kind and good with her special needs' students. I taught math and many of the special ed classrooms were on our hall, so I saw her quite often... such a gentle spirit.

“ Although I have known Edna since 1980, we became the closest of friends in 1988 when my father passed away. That’s too long of a story to post here but suffice it to say she helped me through the weeks preceding his death immensely. She was generous and giving and just a true gem of a friend. My heart is just broken over losing her but after reading through some of her recent texts today it hit me how much pain she was in, especially during the past few months. I prayed so hard for a miracle; a miracle where God would heal her but now I realize He did just that, for she is healed and free of pain in heaven, her eternal home. I know I will think of her every day and remember her with tears, love and hopefully one day, laughter. Scott, you were blessed to have a wonderful, loving mother and may you know always how proud she was of you. You were the joy of her life.

“ Edna was a Christian woman in action. She was a comforting, helpful child of God. She would drive a moving van from Riverdale Georgia to Washinton DC to help a young single mother. She would cook a meal to serve someone who needed a hand. She faithfully served her church as financial secretary and alter guild. She sang to our Lord in choir and prayed for others. Her love and kindness reflected her love for Jesus.

Her other biggest loves were Jerry and Scott. They were always in her heart, prayers and thoughts. Her example is in our heads and hearts. She will be missed, but we will see her and Jerry again on that great day! Amen come Lord Jesus Bill Vicki Jones

“ Edna has always given me advice for my children. Some of them were taller and looked older than they were. Sometimes people expected them to act how old they looked, not how they were. She came and hugged me and told me she had the same situation with Scott. She told me I was doing well with the kids and she loved having them at church.

I first met Edna at Christ Our Savior when we were meeting at the flea market. She was very warm, welcoming friendly and just very sincere. She kept talking to me about Noah's Ark and telling me I should come and put in an application, after about a year-and-a-half I decided I would go. After I started work there we became very close as co-workers and as sisters in Christ. Edna did a lot of things behind the scene and if anyone needed help she was always there to offer a helping hand. I will miss her so much but I know she's not hurting anymore and she's in God's loving arms.
