“ I was saddened to learn of the death of Edna. In the 90's when line dancing was everywhere I met Edna when I started taking line dancing lessons from her son Terry and his wife. She made going there so much fun. Over the years when line dancing was almost a thing of the past I thought of Edna often and all the fun times we had together. It was so much fun to run into her and Terry at the Cracker Barrel on Bullsboro at meal time on a few occasions over the years. My sympathy to her family and friends. She was a great lady in so many ways. . .

“ Terry and family,
Our prayers and thoughts are with all of you. Lossing your mother at this time of year makes it twice hard to accept. May the Lord comfort you during this time.

“ Growing up at First Christian Church, “Miss Edna” has just always been. She was a firecracker and always enjoyed seeing her in recent years at the county senior luncheons. She will certainly be missed. Mike & Julie Marchese

“ I only had the pleasure of knowing Mrs. Edna for about 13 years. My life and everyone else's life that knew her or just had the pleasure of meeting her ,is very enriched by that experience. She was always pleasant and cheerful, also she had her outfit very together when ever you would see her out and about ! What a Matriarch of the Phillip's family! Newnan,Coweta, Georgia and the United States of America, has lost one of the GREAT people of her time !!!

Edna and I melted together in more than one way. She was a volunteer at Newnan Hospital where I was employed and she was one of my staff members during elections at the now Asa Powell Expo Center. She worked with us until the,age of 98. A very vibrant lady and loved by all. We have missed her these last few years and her memory will live on with us. Rest in heaven Edna.

When I came to First Christian as a teenager in the early 60's, I remember "Miss Edna". She was a pillar of that church. She was always dressed to a "T" and she was always smiling. Prayers for Terry and all the family. She will be missed by everyone who knew her!
