“ Edna was a wonderful lady whom we respected and admired. Clive worked with her in the mid 1980s and both he and Sandy were pleased to have seen her periodically in the years since then. We will miss her. Clive and Sandy Slovin

“ Edna was a dear friend and I cherish memories of visits with her. I am especially pleased to have the memory of a weekend with her and Ted last year and attendance at church on Sunday morning... A fond memory of attending Newnan's Show of Homes as her guest and at her suggeston arriving at my relatives' home on the tour (Betty and Jerry Dyar) unnannounced and to their total surprise. Well remember when I first visited at their home via invitation from the Campbells at one of their famous Labor Day Weekend celebrations. Fond memories indeed. Will remember her always.
