“ Mrs. Runette, Steve, Wanda, Pam, Dick and family, I just learned of Mr. Ed's passing. I remember the last time that I saw him. He and Mrs. Runette were at Cracker Barrell eating. I stopped and spoke to them and his face lit up. He was so happy that I remembered him. Please accept my sincere condolences. He will be missed.

“ Many special memories of Ed, especially how his face would light up when he saw the kids. They loved fishing in his pond out back, they believed they were quite talented since they could get a fish every 5 minutes. Wish we could be there to give everyone big hugs, much love to all of you.

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with the family. Growing up in Moreland, I can remember riding my bike to see his daughter Pam. Mrs. Bledsoe always had a welcoming smile and Mr Ed would always ask "How is your family doing?" Pam, your family has a very special place in our hearts.
