“ Our hearts are heavy today to learn of the passing of Ed. He was a longtime school friend of ours who made Newnan High School a more pleasurable experience. We had a lots of good times together. Even though our careers took us in different directions we have often thought about Ed and Mary and their family. We so much enjoyed reading his wrirings on his blog; it made our troubles seem small. He could have been a great writer. He will be missed. God Bless.

“ Heather and Daniel I was sorry to hear about Ed. He was truly at great person who was able to bring cheer and happiness into a lot of people's life. He captured a large following on his blog concerning Kudzu Cancer. He demonstrated how someone can face this disease and still keep their sense of humor, but that was Ed. We will keep both of you and the family in our prayers.

“ So very sorry to hear about Ed just as I was to hear about Mary. I have known them so long that I can't recall when I didn't know them. They were always together, just as they are now. From softball, to Baseball, to the kid's school activities, even as neighbors, I have always considered Ed and Mary friends. So glad that Ed got his miracle and that he will not suffer any more. You and yours are in my thoughts and prayers.
