“ We worked with Ed at the DKSO. The 4 of us became close friends. We shared the love for Southern Gospel Music. For 21 years we went to Gatlinburg to attend Bill Gaithers Family Fest. Three days of Gospel Music. We had so much fun. Looked forward to the next year. We laughed a lot. Because of health issues and our age, we stopped going. But we still talked and laughed about our trips. Ed was the sweetest person. We are going to miss our friend so much. But I know there will be a day that he will meet us at the gate. I have peace knowing that Ed is with the Lord. And he is hearing some of the best singing he has ever heard. We will see you Ed in the Midnight Cry. 🙏
