“ I'll always remember how Uncle Edward could warm your heart with his smile, and how he had such an easy-going manner about him. There are so many fond memories of family time we all spent together, and I will cherish them always. To Carol, Keith, and family, I hope those same memories can bring you some warmth and comfort during this difficult time. I'll give you all a big hug and tell you that, myself, when I see you this coming weekend. Love you all. I miss you so much, Uncle Ed. - Jason Estep

“ I'm so sorry to hear of the loss of Mr. Edward Miller. I've known him and his family most of my life. He at one time was my supervisor at Bibb Manufacturing in Sargent. He was a great person to work for and was always a friend. He and his family were great neighbors to have.
