Tribute Wall

“ My name is Janet Nydam Nolley, Elaine's cousin. I am so sorry to hear of her death. I sent a Christmas card last year and it was the first time I didn't get something back. Then I wrote again in September when my brother, Donald Nydam, died from cancer. And then when the Christmas card was returned I found this obituary online. Perhaps this is my way of apologizing for this very late tribute.

My memories of Elaine, and of Bill, are intertwined with the memories of Uncle Ade and Auntie Jeanette, and the warm and pleasant childhood family events. I moved to Oregon after I married, but saw Elaine frequently when down, especially during the time they were in the retirement complex in Redlands. Her mother and mine were in the Artesia Christian Home together and we also shared some of those times, and some were rather awkward after my mother went into senility. But Elaine was always gracious, even when Mother wasn't!

I think so often of trying to connect with cousins. I haven't seen Linda in years and since we go through Northern California by car at times, I have thought of contacting Marcie or Debbie, if they are still there. If anyone is interested in writing, my email is jnolley@willamette.edu.

Again, I want to extend my sympathy at the loss of your mother, grandmother and great-grandmother.
