“ Awwwwe Tammy I'm so very sorry I just found out last night honey. What a beautiful picture of your sweet Mama. Anytime years ago when I'd bumped into her at some store or another she'd always hug me and show that amazing smile and we'd talk until our legs gave out! My heart is heavy knowing your loss is so different. If you ever need to talk 678-416-9232 anytime. Elaine brightened a room she walked in every single time and so did Thad. They are together once again. Heaven gained another great angel. I'm so sorry I am always here girl for you. Take care of yourself sweetie and be good to Tammy as there is no timeline about grief sweet friend. Take it moment by moment if you need to. Sometimes a day at a time is just too hard. Love you sweet friend ❤️🙏🙏🙏🙏🙏

“ Mrs. Mayo, Mike, Bennie, and Elaine were like family to me when I was a teenager. It saddens me that we lost contact with each other, as we grew older. I am so sorry to hear of her passing.

“ My deepest condolences to the family. I remember meeting Elaine at Sharpsburg Baptist Church. She was always full of love and laughter. I can recall many shared laughs in the church choir during Wednesday night practice. I can even recall hanging out at their house down the road from where I grew up with her grandson Casey. She will be missed. I will keep you all in my prayers 🙏
