“ My Dearest Mom. We will live in each others' hearts always. She has immense grace and strength, because of her undying faith. Her community loved her, that was very apparent to me when I would visit her and we would eat out. In her own gentle way, she earned one's respect. She graduated from Westminster Choir College, met and married my Dad, Edgar. She then gave birth to and raised 5 children, 4 boys and a girl. I'm the youngest at 48. She then returned to school at GA State University to become an Elementary School Teacher. She then taught first grade for 15 years, retiring at 65, just around the time my father passed of Cancer in 1990. Her and I lived together until 1995/96 when she finally moved out to Newnan, where she lived alone for the first 11 years, and was then joined by the oldest, my brother Mark, who took care of her the last 6 years or so of her life. I know she will be missed by not only her family, but many others. I Love You Always Mom, John Francis

“ I will miss my good friend, Eleanor. She and I sang with Masterworks Chorale and at St. George. I admired her so much. She was a truly caring, spiritual, thoughtful, and witty person. I know she must be already singing in heaven! My thoughts and prayers go out to her family. She was very special, and I will hold her in my heart forever.
