

Elizabeth Anne Emmons

August 4, 1931 - September 2, 2020

Mrs. Elizabeth Anne (Henry) Emmons, age 89, passed away on Wednesday September 2nd, 2020 at Avalon Health & Rehabilitation in Newnan, Georgia.

Elizabeth was born in Knoxville, Tennessee on August 4th, 1931. She was a loving mother and homemaker and raised three children. She loved to cook, read mystery novels, decorate for the seasons and holidays and was always ready and willing to go on a shopping expedition with her daughters, granddaughters or friends. Later in life after successfully raising her children, Betty volunteered with the Tellico Village Womens Club in Loudon, Tennessee, which supported the local children's advocacy center.

She is preceded in death by her husband, Walter Franklin Emmons, III. Elizabeth is survived by her son and daughter-in-law, Bill and Jo Ann Emmons; daughters and sons-in-law Teresa and Dick Kelley, Linda and Kyle Terry; grandchildren Rachel Gray, Dené Collins, Caleb Kelley, Shaun Terry, Doug Terry, and Zach Kelley; as well as her six great-grandchildren.

It was Mrs. Emmons' request that no formal services be held. The family will gather together privately at a later time to celebrate her life. In lieu of flowers or other expressions of sympathy, the family requests that donations be made to the American Stroke Association at www.stroke.org. Condolences may be expressed to the family online at www.mckoon.com.
