“ I got to know and love "Miss Liz" when she and I worked at Elm Street School. She could make some of the best sweets in town. She would send me word that she needed to see me in the cafeteria. When I got there she would have me two of her famous cookies hot out of the oven and all wrapped up in a napkin. She was a sweet lady and will be greatly missed.

“ Glenn, Beverly, Traci, Steve and Ricky. May God hold you in His arms as you mourn your loss. Rest in His assurance that Aunt Liz is before the throne, without pain, with a perfect body. The angels are celebrating her homecoming. I love you all as my adopted family.
Thank you.
