February 6, 1934 - January 11, 2025

Elizabeth Mae Rinehart, 90, of Newnan Ga, passed away peacefully on Saturday morning, January 11, 2025, at the Haven in Newnan Ga. Born February 6, 1934, in Wind Gap, she was a daughter of the late George and Aetta (Saddler) Kline.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her brother Allen Kline, husband Robert Rinehart, sister Ellen Lancaster-Schmidt and son-in-law Jeffrey Herr.

After retiring, she and her husband relocated to Newnan Ga from Bath Pa. to spend time with their family and watch their grandson grow up. They loved traveling in their motor home and being on their pontoon boat fishing with their son and daughter in law. She spent much of her time with her grandson, she could be found at karate class or at Landmark Christian school in either in the pick-up line or at sporting events. She quickly became known as Nana to most. She loved and lived for her family; cooking, baking, being in her yard, and decorating for all holidays. Christmas was always her biggest joy, decorating, baking, shopping and wrapping would start early and go to the new year. She was a member and volunteered at Heritage Christian Church (now One Church) in Peachtree City for many years. In her later years she actively attended Crossroads Christian Church.

She is survived by daughter, Reneé Herr Kelly and husband Tony Kelly; son, Todd E. Rinehart and wife Jo; grandson, Joshua Herr and wife DeAnna, great grandchildren Ellis and Charlotte Herr. She also had two step-grandchildren, nieces and nephews.

Memorial service will be held in the spring when the weather is better on the property of Renee and Tony Kelly. The date and time will be announced via social media for those who would like to attend.
