“ Lee, Carolyn and I were so sorry to learn about Emily. She was a very good lady and was always smiling and very outgoing during the time that we knew both of you. Both, you and Emily are to be commended and greatly appreciated for your service and leadership with our Fellowship Class. Our prayers and thoughts will continue to be with you and your loved ones during this time of deep loss. God bless you and keep you. SAM STOREY

“ I have so many fond memories of Aunt Emily...seeing her and Unle Lee and Melissa at Aunt Rubye's at Thanksgiving, taking my son William to visit them when he was a baby, the two of them driving all the way from Marietta for his first birthday party. He can still wear the little bathing suit they gave him. My husband Robby says he will never forget them for being there that day. Aunt Emily lived a long, good life, and we all will miss her, but she is with the rest of our family now.
