“ One of the sweetest ladies I have ever known. "Miss Em" (as I have called her for at least 45 years) and I have shared a friendship that I can only describe as pure joy. I have never heard her say an unkind word about another living person. I have never heard her complain about anything. She loved her children, grand children and great grandchildren so very much and would always catch me up on what was going on with them. This kind lady has suffered more tragedy in her life than most of us cannot imagine. She bore this pain with grace. Her faith never dimmed!. To Skip, Carla, and all the family I am sending you my deepest condolences. I know that Ms Em and Mr Raymond are rejoicing with Marie, Julie, Adam and all the others that have been waiting for her at the gates of heaven. Miss Em, my beautiful friend, I love you!

Mrs. Emily Brown, Maw Maw, was one, if not the nicest, woman I have ever met. She was so wonderful in all she did and said and never a bad word about anyone. She always had a smile and a love for everyone she met. She was always so happy when nice things happened to others. She was one of a kind in so many lovely ways. She will forever be missed by all that knew and loved her so!!!
