“ Emory and I go back many, many years. I knew him when his pawn shop was located in the shopping plaza where the Coweta County Justice Center now sits. His customer base were also his friends. Emory always had a twinkle in his eye, and a quick wit. His generosity extended to baseball tickets, use of his beach condo - essentially, whatever he had, he graciously offered to friends and family. He was quick to do a favor, and also quick to make a "deal". His wonderful wife Jenny, was the love of his life. Whatever Emory had on his agenda/calendar - the timing needed to consider Jenny - her needs and wishes. His deep gruff voice was misleading, and my office staff knew it - he was a "softy" (in his heart). The truth is that Emory was a pleasure at all times. I am still stunned over the suddenness of this tragic loss. Emory was an avid weightlifter - he appeared younger than his age. He will be sorely missed. My deepest sympathies to Jenny and the extended family.

Thank you for sharing these kind words & your fond memories of Emory. He always spoke so highly of you. He was the best husband to my mom & we were all so blessed to have him in our lives.

“ I met Emory several years ago in the gym! We have been friends since the meeting! Everyone thought highly of Emory because he gave everyone time and attention. We had great conversations about politics and sports. He and I hit it off and became pretty close because we both Coached and have a great interest in kids and their success as students and athletes! His biggest thrill was his family. He loved them all and shared his feelings with me about his wonderful family! I am missing a great friend and will continue praying for his wonderful family! Rest in peace Emory!

Mike Williams - October 28, 2024 at 03:58 PM

Thank you so much Mike. Emory was so glad he had made friends at the gym that he was able to chat with, cut up with, and work out with. He loved to talk and loved to hear stories. I know he's missing his morning gym family.

“ Emory was a good friend to me over the last 15 + years. When I was first met Emory I was a young banker just returning back to Newnan. He gave me a few great lessons in negotiating as he was one of the best I have ever dealt with. My kids used to love our trips to see "Mr. Emory" at the pawn shop, as he always let them go grab some candy or a soft drink from the cooler. When he sold the pawn shop there was a void in the community, it was always a place to stop in and hear what was going on in town and just have some friendly conversation. We will pray for the entire family during these difficult times, he will be dearly missed by the Conoly family.

Thank you Will for sharing your fond memories of Emory. I met you many times in the pawnshop as well as a couple in the bank when we purchased our lake home. Emory thought a lot about you and assured us you would take care of us. He may have considered you a businessman & one of his bankers but he considered you a true friend.
