“Ernie was a dear and gentle man. I was his chaplain for a time at Fort Bragg. He sought me out to visit and share his life and story with me. Even after I returned from deployment, he found me at a different chapel and we spent time visiting, each time telling me of his love and concern for his family. I was saddened to hear of his passing.

“I would like to offer my condolences to the Bradley family. Since I live in Sullivan County Pa., I frequently pass Bradley Road and remember when I was very young riding the pig at the Bradley homestead. With sincere sympathy, George Macgill
