

Ervin "Shaun" Crump

January 17, 1978 - December 1, 2025

With deep sorrow yet profound gratitude for the gift of his life, we announce that Ervin "Shaun" Crump, 47, of Newnan, Georgia, passed away unexpectedly on December 1, 2025. Though his passing was unexpected, his journey on this earth was lived with boldness, love, and an unwavering spirit that reflected the light of God in all he did.

With hearts full of love and gratitude, we celebrate the life of a remarkable man - a devoted husband, father, grandfather, son, brother, teammate, coworker, and friend - whose presence lit up every room he entered. His strength was unmistakable, but it was matched, if not surpassed, by his compassion, his faith, and the joy he poured into every moment of his life.

Shaun was born and raised in Sanford, NC on January 17, 1978, to the late Ervin Tyrone Crump and Janice Alston Crump. He attended Lee County Senior High School in Sanford, before attending Catawba College in Salisbury, North Carolina. There, he met his college sweetheart Brooke Uzzolino. They began their life together in northeast Pennsylvania for a few years before settling in Newnan in 2011.

Shaun's greatest earthly blessing was his beloved wife, Brooke, the woman he fell head over heels for the moment their paths crossed at Catawba College. Their love would span over two decades of devotion, friendship, and unwavering commitment. Their love ignited quickly and beautifully, and together they welcomed their daughter, Haven. They later completed their family with their son, Braelin, a gift that deepened the joy and purpose they shared. Shaun and Brooke did everything together: they were avid cruise travelers, partners in football-filled Sundays, companions in every season, and truly best friends in every sense of the word. He was the yin to her yang - steady where she needed strength, tender where she needed gentleness, and always attuned to her heart. Shaun loved Brooke with a depth that was instinctive and constant; he cared for her needs before she even knew to speak them, serving with devotion. She never had to wonder if she was loved, supported, or cherished - Shaun lived his love out loud, every day, in every small and meaningful way. Their marriage was a testament to God's design for partnership, a beautiful union marked by loyalty, laughter, adventure, and a love that remains unbroken even now.

Shaun's greatest joy in life was being a father and a husband. He showed up for his family with a devotion that was quiet, constant, and unmistakable. To his children, he was a mentor, a teammate, and a safe place to land. For years, he coached his son's football team-offering not just drills and strategy, but the kind of encouragement that builds confidence, compassion, and character. He shared passions with Braelin that brought them even closer: time spent lifting weights, trading tattoo ideas, and steadfastly rooting for the Washington Commanders. No matter how busy life became, Shaun never missed a moment that mattered to his kids and never went a day without checking in on them.

Shaun's love for his daughter, Haven, was equally deep and unwavering. He showed up for her through every stage of her life with heartfelt compassion and emotional openness, offering steady guidance, listening deeply, and making sure she always felt supported. He was a proud "dance dad," cheering at every show, never missing a moment to celebrate her accomplishments.

During Haven's pregnancy, he cared for her with a gentle steadiness, ensuring she felt protected and cherished every step of the way. Welcoming his grandson, Emerson, was one of the brightest moments of his life, and he treasured every bit of time he had with him.

Shaun taught both of his children how to be strong and independent-how to fix things, how to solve problems, and how to trust themselves. He was always the one they could call when something broke, whether it was a car, a cabinet, or a heart in need of reassurance. He took pride in showing up, tools in hand, knowing that the act of helping was another way of loving.

Shaun lived his life in devotion to his family-steadfast, present, and full of heart. The love he poured into his wife and children will remain an enduring part of their lives, a legacy of commitment, generosity, and boundless pride.

Shaun's mother Janice lovingly remembers him as a happy, smiling, clowning child - always full of surprises and always ready to bring laughter into the room. Even from a young age, he carried a lightness and joy that drew people to him, along with a remarkable sense of neatness and organization that was well beyond his years. He loved to make others smile, yet he also took quiet pride in keeping his things in order, a trait that followed him throughout his life. His playful spirit was matched by discipline and reliability - qualities that later shaped the lessons he instilled in his family - Crump's are never late, a standard he embraced wholeheartedly. From boyhood to manhood, that joyful spark, steady dependability, and natural sense of order never left him, shaping the remarkable man he became.

Shaun shared a rare and irreplaceable bond with his brother, Michael - a relationship built on unwavering love, deep respect, and genuine friendship. To Michael, Shaun was more than a brother; he was a best friend, a hero, an inspiration, and the steady rock he could always lean on. They never argued, never wavered, and their connection was as effortless as it was unbreakable. Michael spent so much time with Shaun at Catawba College - cheering him on, laughing with him, simply being by his side - that many believed he was a student there himself. Their brotherhood was a gift from God, a lifelong source of strength and joy, and Michael carries Shaun's spirit with him always, grateful for every moment they shared. A proud pro bodybuilder, Shaun lived his passion with extraordinary dedication. Sponsored by MuscleTech under the Muscle Asylum brand, he achieved the kind of dream most only imagine - traveling, competing, and even sharing dinners with Mr. Olympia legends like Arnold Schwarzenegger, Jay Culter, and Ronnie Coleman. His athletic spirit began at an early age: he played recreation football, baseball, basketball, wrestling, and track. He went on to be a running back for Catawba College for four years while he earned his Bachelor Arts Degree in Sociology. A man of faith, he loved his church community and served faithfully on the Safety Team at Go Church, where he found purpose and brotherhood. His passions were many: plants, music, fast cars, and even a brief but enthusiastic attempt to learn guitar. He was a true grill master, especially known for his ribs and chicken - meals that filled the yard with the kind of smell that let everyone know something special was cooking. He loved his tattoos, each one a part of his story. He loved his dogs, every single one over the years, and the way they loved him back. He celebrated life's victories, big and small - like finally getting his dream car, a Ford Mustang 5.0, which brought him pure joy every time he turned the key. He was, without question, an unapologetically devoted, lifelong fan of the Washington Redskins & NC State, cheering with the same passion he brought to everything. Most of all, Shaun was compassionate and outgoing, someone who genuinely never met a stranger. His smile - huge, warm, unforgettable - had a way of charming people, lifting spirits, and making everyone feel seen and welcomed. He had an easy way about him, a presence that radiated kindness and authenticity. He found happiness in the simple things, in being at home, in caring for what he loved, in serving others, and in spending time with the people who mattered most.

His love, his laughter, and his larger-than-life smile will live on in everyone who had the privilege of knowing him. His legacy is one of strength, family, faith, joy, and wholehearted living - a legacy that will continue to inspire and uplift for generations to come.

Shaun is survived by his wife of 20 years, Brooke Nicole Crump; two children, Haven Nicole (Joshua) of Newnan, GA, and Braelin Vanshaun of Newnan, GA; one grandchild, Emerson Jalil Hunter of Newnan, GA; mother, Janice Alston Crump of Pittsboro, NC, brother Michael (April) of Sanford, NC; grandfather, James Douglass of Phoenix, AZ; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, aunts, uncles, friends, loved ones, and brothers and sisters in Christ.

Shaun cared deeply about feeding children in need, so in honor of his legacy, the family will hold a special cash collection during the celebration to help pay off local school lunch debt.

The visitation is Sunday, December 7, 2025, from 5:00 PM until 8:00 PM at McKoon Funeral Home, 38 Jackson Street, in Newnan. The celebration of Shaun's life is Monday, December 8, 2025, at 11:00 AM in the sanctuary of GO Church, 3935 GA-34 E, in Sharpsburg. Immediately following the service, the family invites everyone to Line Creek Brewing Co., 150 Huddleston Rd, in Peachtree City, for a time to fellowship and share stories.

We are gathering stories, photos, and short video messages to honor Shaun. There is no pressure to say the "right" thing. Speak from the heart. “ My deepest condolences to the Crump Family. Shaun Crump was one of the managers who interviewed me in my early career, at Dendreon. I worked at Dendreon under Shaun's leadership for 5 years. He made me feel very welcomed and helped shaped my career in the pharmaceutical industry, during a time that felt uncertain to me. I'm grateful for you opening that door of opportunity for me. It has helped shaped a solid foundation for my career, as I'm sure many others.

“ Mrs. Janice asked me to write something: This is what I wrote: Shaun and I practically grew up together. After we graduated high school, life took us in different directions and we eventually lost contact. However, when my mother, Norah, was diagnosed with stage 4 lung cancer, Shaun reached out to check on me and to offer his help in any way he could as I navigated the challenges of providing in-home hospice care. Throughout that time, he consistently checked on both my mother and me, and his support and encouragement meant more than he ever knew.

Even after my mother's passing, Shaun continued to check on me and my daughters, and for that I will always remain deeply grateful. Shaun was a truly caring soul—someone who would set aside his own needs to be present for others.

Most importantly, Shaun had a strong relationship with God. He held onto his faith, his joy, and his love through every circumstance, always accompanied by that unforgettable smile. I am profoundly grateful to have known him, and I have no doubt the Lord welcomed him with open arms.

“ My deepest sympathies to your family. Shaun was my boss at Dendreon and I'll never forget how welcome and encouraged he made me feel. I found out we went to the same chiropractor because he was bragging about me and some of the other recent hires to the chiropractor and she realized he was talking about me. It was my first "real" job and knowing that someone believed that much in my potential, it meant the world to me. Thank you for everything -Kristen Holmes-Hall

“ We had to wrap our heads around this tragic loss this week. There are many memories as Shaun was the best neighbor ever, his wife is a loving and good woman and his children are remarkable, talented and intelligent. This is due to their upbringing with Shaun and Brooke. His kindness, thoughtfulness and infectious smile will remain forever in our hearts. We have cried many tears this week every time we think of another memory. If our pain is huge, I can only imagine how their family is feeling. He loved them fiercely, felt wholly, and nothing was more important to him! We are so glad we got to see Shaun and Brooke before their “honeymoon” and will cherish every memory we have. We pray for you Brooke, Haven and Braelin. Shaun, you were a Special one of a kind person! God must have needed you more. Till we meet again and I kick your butt at a Rib Cook-off, peace my friend!

“ I only knew Shaun for a short time, but he made an impact on me that I won't forget.

My first interaction with him was on a cruise a little over a month ago. My wife and I were seated next to Shaun and his wife, Brooke, at dinner. When their starters arrived, they immediately held hands and prayed.

As a man of faith myself, I remember thinking how awesome it was to see someone so comfortable living out their faith. It really challenged me to step up my own walk with God and to be a stronger spiritual leader for my wife. When they finished praying, I said "Amen" and told them how much I appreciated seeing that.

Later, when my wife and I left the table, she told me she had gotten a strong "mentor" feeling from Shaun, even though I hadn't told her anything about how I felt in that moment. That really stuck with me.

A day or two later we ended up seated next to them again, and this time we had a great conversation with both Shaun and Brooke. We even talked about surprising them after the holidays so we could meet up again and catch up. It felt like the start of a new friendship.

Even though I didn't know Shaun long, he touched my life quickly. He had a calm, steady presence that made you want to be better. It breaks my heart that this happened to someone who brought so much light into the world. But I also know where he is now, and I know he is in a far better place.

I am grateful that our paths crossed, even for a short time. The example he set in just a couple of moments is something I will carry with me.

“ I worked with Shaun at Dendreon for a few years. It is extremely rare for a leader to be professional, gregarious, caring, relatable, and down to earth. He was all those things and that was just the version he presented at work. I've heard so many touching memories of him as a family man and man of faith too. He was such a breath of fresh air and a wonderful human being. He would always inject a bit of levity and laughter in whatever room he entered. My deepest condolences to his family as his departure was very untimely. His presence will surely be missed. However, his infectious spirit and essence will carry on.

“ I'm still struggling to believe he's gone. He came to work here at Kason earlier this year. What a breath of fresh air. He always had a smile, compliment for everyone and truly knew how to talk to the employees and motivate them to be better and work more efficiently. He and I hit it off from the start with a butterfly conversation after him seeing them everywhere in my office. He shared how he came to enjoy them since his father's passing. He actually brought me a garden butterfly stem to place in my flower bed like the 2nd week he started. I can't say enough good about Shaun's grace, kindness, positivity and professionalism each and every day. He was so excited when his grandson was born, and she shared pictures and stories with that huge smile of his. I miss him already and the conversations we had and wish I could talk to him one more time and see that smile. Shaun left a hole in my heart and I'm forever grateful and blessed by his friendship even though it was cut short. Heaven gained a wonderful God loving man. “ I met Erin (Shaun) when he started working for Kason. I worked closely with him and helped with his transition into the company. He was easy to work with because of his work ethics he brought with him.
I remember talking about kids, sports and work. Even though I only knew him a short while, he was great to work with. I recently went through some surgeries and when I returned, he would ask me every day how I was doing. I will miss that.
From my family to his, our prayers are with you. Shuan will be missed.

The Darrow family.
