“ Uncle Wayne, Jerrell and Donna, I am so sorry and know that this is a tough time but am happy for Aunt Stelle in that her illness is over. She has left me with such good memories of all those years growing up in Waco, Atlanta and beyond. My favorite memory will always be that laugh when she would get "tickled". I am sure that her primary concern now would be for all of you to take care of yourselves. I truly believe there were many waiting for her this morning in a better place. Please do not hesitate to call on myself or Raymond in the coming days. You were there for us when we needed you most for which we will always be grateful. See you Soon, Eddie
