“ As we go through life we meet a few people who make a difference in our lives, for me and my wife Debra, Miss Evelyn was one of those people. I loved to sit with her for a few minutes in Church every Sunday and just talk about our week and anything else that was happening. We miss that very much. She wasn't just our Pastor's Mom, She was Andrews Chapel's Mom too.

“ The singularly BEST teacher I ever had! I remember misbehaving one day in her 5th grade class. My punishment was to write the 50 states and capitals. I still remember them.

“ Ms. Evelyn was one of the most delightful & interesting ladies I have ever known. Always interested in what my granddaughters & I had been doing. She would always say, “tell me what you know.” It could be about anything, & she cared to hear it. I will miss her intelligent conversations & her wit. She was of a different generation & one to be admired.
I love you Ms. Evelyn, & we will have lots to talk about when I see you again.

“ God gives us great people in our lives and Evelyn was a gift and treasure. As a wonderful neighbor and as a devout Christian lady who never failed to want to pray to our Lord and Savior and never failed to lift me up even though I went to cheer her. Her son , Jim, is a tribute to her life and love of God. He and his wife, Sarah, shine the Lord s light in every direction every day. I know how much she loved her daughter , Jean, and family and we will all miss her. She crossed over on St. Patrick s day and I know the Lord and St. Peter said -- well done good and faithful servant and a lucky day for us to see you dear Evelyn. Prayers with all of you at this time and Rest in Peace precious angel, Evelyn Lyles Dixon. Diane Parzygnat and family
