

Evelyn Robertson Smith

September 23, 1933 - March 26, 2026

Evelyn Robertson Smith, born September 23, 1933, in Pompano Beach, Florida, lived a full life centered on faith, family, and friends. She was the daughter of Christine Martin Robertson and Samuel L. Robertson. She later moved to Newnan, Georgia, where she graduated from East Coweta High School in 1952.

Evelyn was a lifelong member of Mt. Gilead Methodist Church and a loving wife, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, relative, and friend who touched the lives of all who knew her. She was a devoted and faithful wife to Carl Eugene Smith, with whom she shared 64 years of marriage.

Evelyn was a compassionate caregiver to the sick and elderly, and a selfless and faithful source of care and support to her family and friends. She gave of herself freely, always putting others before her own needs.

An exceptional gardener, Evelyn considered it her true passion. To say she had a green thumb would be an understatement. She nurtured everything she planted with patience and care, creating beauty and abundance wherever she worked. She embraced organic living long before it became popular, and that dedication carried into her cooking, where her meals were not only healthy but truly beyond delicious. In addition to gardening, she was a talented seamstress with a gift for sewing and crochet.

A simple soul who lived an honest life, Evelyn positively impacted all who knew her. There is no doubt that God welcomed her through the Pearly Gates with open arms, saying, "Well done, my good and faithful servant."

She was preceded in death by her husband, Carl Eugene Smith; her parents, Christine and Samuel Robertson; and her siblings, Leroy Robertson, Betty Robertson Brown, and Harry Robertson.

She is survived by her siblings, Charles Robertson and Linda Robertson Caldwell; her children, Don (Donna) Smith, Cynthia (Greg) Owens, and Joey (Tammy) Smith; her grandchildren, Will (Sarah) Smith, Kate (Scott) Goodson, Wesley (Kasey) Owens, Russell (Victoria) Owens, Daniel (Amanda) Smith, and Heather (Kelby) Holt; and her great-grandchildren, Elsie Goodson, Brooks Goodson, James Owens, Camilla Owens, Charles Owens, Thomas Smith, Evelyn Smith, Sam Smith, Ben Smith, Lilah Holt, Kannon Holt, and Harley Holt.

Above all, Evelyn will be remembered for her kindness, strength, and unwavering love for her family. Her legacy lives on in the many lives she touched and the traditions she passed down.

A heartfelt thank you to Ms. Ann Marie Lewis for her kind and gentle care.

The visitation is Sunday, March 29, beginning at 2:00 pm at Mt. Gilead Methodist Church in Sharpsburg. The graveside service will follow at 3:00 pm in the Mt. Gilead Methodist Church Cemetery.

In lieu of flowers contributions can be made to Mt. Gilead Methodist Church 2651 GA-16, Sharpsburg, GA 30277.

“ She was a wonderful lady, loved her laugh. So full of life. So blessed to grow up at Mt Gilead and today remembering all the family through the years that went to church there. The visits with Daddy and Mama to there house and there visits when we moved to Alabama and just sitting and listening to them talk and laugh. Greatly miss those days. Prayers for all the family but blessed to know she is in the arms of Jesus . Her life was well lived, I was truly blessed that she was family. Mary Beth Robertson Earnest

“ Miss Evelyn and my grandmother were friends at Mt. Gilead. My grandmother passed away a few months before I got married and in memory of my grandmother Miss Evelyn and her sister-in-law bought my wedding flowers and made sure they were so special for me. It truly meant so much. Every year, I would send her a Christmas card and she would always respond with One back, reassuring me how proud my grandmother would be of me and my family, her kindness that she always showed me truly met a lot probably more than she ever realized. I will miss her very much.
