November 1, 1982 - June 17, 2026

Mrs. Evelyn Yuliana Valentine-Hernandez, 43, of Newnan, Georgia, formerly of Morales, Guatemala, passed away Wednesday, June 17, 2026, at Piedmont Atlanta Hospital, from an unexpected medical emergency. Yuliana was born November 1, 1982, in Guatemala to Arturo Hernandez-Gonzales and Celia Ramirez-Portela. She was the beloved wife of Andrew C. Valentine, also of Newnan.

Yuliana was a beautiful soul, who loved God and her savior, Jesus Christ. She was an active member of St. George Catholic Church in Newnan. She and her husband Andrew fell deeply in love when her uncle, Mario Portela, took Andrew to visit Yuliana in Guatemala. Eventually, Yuliana moved to Newnan where they married each other surrounded by friends and family. The couple were inseparable whether it was performing simple daily tasks or enjoying adventures to other parts of the world.

Yuliana had strong family ties and checked on family members daily. She loved to clean and she was a wonderful cook. She could dice vegetables finer than any culinary expert. With a quick wit and sharp mind, she bravely navigated the world, learning English and teaching her American in-laws Spanish. She brought a smile and kindness to everyone she met and was loved by everyone that knew her.

“ I met Yuliana 20 years ago on summer vacation. Even back then she was such a hard working woman and she was extremely close with her family. We had similar humor. I will miss our laughs and conversations.
