“ My sincere condolences! Clay was such a kind and sincere person. I met Clay while coaching pony club when his daughter, Hanna, rode. Though not constant friends, we always easily fell into thoughtful conversation over horses and history. A beautiful soul.

“ Stephanie, we are so sorry to learn of Clay's passing. Please know that we are praying fervently for you & all who loved Clay! He had a smile that would light up a room and his humor was second to none. We will always cherish how excited Clay was for our house to be completed so we could finally be neighbors. Stephanie, we look forward to raising a toast to Clay and giving you a great big hug. We are here for you! Much love, the Turpins (Katherine, Clarke and Halton)
