“ My grandfather was one of those people who had alot of pride and dignity. He was always my hero and i will never ever forget the times me and him had together. because even though he maybe gone and i can't see him, he will always be standing next to me and he forever has a place in my heart. he always made me smile something big :) And most of my memories of him are playing card with him or laying down in his lap watching tom and jerry, Yep tom and jerry was his favorite cartoon, Funny how something like that could make him laugh so hard it always made me laugh everytime milk shot out of his nose. I will my my grandfather very much but i know that everytime i pray fro him and my grandmother i know there out having the biggest adventure of there life. -Clarissa noelle murphy R.I.P grandfather

“ Lee, Rhonda, and Melinda You are in my prayers and thoughts daily. I enjoyed our time together, taking Uncle Ezra to see the home places of his youth and to the Walker farm. He talked about all of you and was so proud to be your father and the grandfather of your children. We can take comfort, knowing Uncle Ezra is now in the arms of your Mother, Francis. I send my love to all of you.

“ After rejoicing with Mr. Ezra Walker on Father's Day after church, I told my husband, now, I see where Lee Walker (the son) gets his kind spirit. Family, May God hold you gently, console you softly and bring you peace. With Heartfelt, Sympathy

“ I'm so sorry for the family to loose a good father, grandfather, and great grandfather. I'm a first cousin to your father. My dad, Irvine R Caswell and your mother, Vella were brother & sister.

“ Although my acquaintance with him was brief, he was one of the most delightful persons I've ever met. I could almost see his eyes twinkling as he talked to me on the phone. You are all in my thoughts and prayers at this time of loss. I know he is in Heaven with his beloved wife, smiling and happy.
