“ I will always have fond memories of Faye. She was a very giving person, and would do so at the expense of her own comfort if necessary. She and Bob made a great team and it was always evident that they depended on each other and loved each other through all times, rough or easy. Faye loved family, and the door to her home (and refrigerator :)) was always wide open. She had a love for the Charleston low country and there were numerous reminders of that throughout her home. I am grateful to have had Faye in my life. I extend my prayers for comfort to all. Bob, you have been a faithful and loyal husband for many years. Your dedication to Faye has been a lesson in standing by the side of your spouse. One day you will stand by her side once again forever.

Love,

Marty
