“ Gina, Charlie I've learned of your precious mom's passing just today, Aug. 24. I'm so sorry. Through the years, how many wonderful memories you all made together. It's a beautiful relationship you and your mom had, Gina. I'm reminded of my own mother as I reflect on the many parties and celebrations through the years that your mom was right there in the middle! God s a gracious one to allow us so much time with our mom...and yet, while I know it's the natural progression of life - it doesn't feel good to be an orphan as we age! Love and miss you. “ Hi Gina, I was so sorry to hear about your mom. I have wonderful memories of your mom over the years and how good she was to my mom. I know this is a hard time for you, but unfortunately we all have this happen to our parents at one time or another. I hope she didn't have too hard a time. I'll be sure to keep you and your family in my prayers as you go through the grieving process. Sincerely,
