April 8, 1924 - May 19, 2016

Mrs. Frances Graham, age 92, of Newnan, GA passed away Wednesday, May 18, 2016 at her home. Frances was born in Salisbury, NC on April 8, 1924 to the late Thomas Monroe Ervin and Jettie Julia Graham. She was a homemaker and loving mother and is preceded in death by her daughter, Elaine Worth. She is survived by her husband, Fred Graham; children, Susan (Greg) Emerson, Mark (Kim) Graham, Kay Graham, Dean Graham and her grandchildren, Samantha Brady, Cody Graham and Amanda (Tony) Rivett.

Frances taught herself how to play the piano when she was five years old. She could not read sheet music but would just listen to a song and then play it. Her loving husband, Fred, knowing how much she loved music, decided to get her a Valentine piano on Valentine's Day years ago. She loved to dance, sing and play the Suwannee Boogie on her piano. The family fondly referred to her as "Sissy" or "Aunt Sissy" and she loved spending time with them, especially during the holidays. She will truly be missed.

“ Sweet & Kind--that's Aunt Sissy.

I do remember her playing some boogie-woogie piano in the basement of our house on Fruit Ave. (Medina, NY) when they visited us in the winter time. Her eyes would light up, and her fingers would fly.

As I recall, one winter visit in Western NY was plenty for her and her family. We let Uncle Freddie sit in the front of the big sled, so he would get the full experience--and a face full of snow. Aunt Sissy had a big laugh seeing that.

She will be missed and will always be loved by the 4 Graham Boys who called her "Sissy", and the rest of us Grahams who always looked forward to her special hugs.

“ I'm so sorry to hear about Frances's passing. Didn't get to spend much time with her,(was her sister Lorene's daughter in law, Dee's wife) but when I did, she was a very sweet lady. I know you will truly miss her. Will pray for the family. Love Linda Clary
