“ So sorry to hear about the death of your mom. Having lost both my mom (in 1994) and my dad just a couple of years ago, I understand the sorrow you must feel. It's comforting to know that they're in a better place and they'll always remain vibrant and living in your heart! Elaine

“ Bill and Betty, We are saddened by the news of Miss Frances death. I have fond memories of us growing up at First Baptist and Frances and Will were always a part of my life. Your Dad and I worked together at the Post Office with Sparkie Keith, and I will never forget his kindness to me, your mom and your family. Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you in this time of need. I know that Will, Frances, and Mary are all together, looking down and will keep watch on all of us. My mom, Jeanette sends her sympathy. She lives with Beth and I, and she and your Mom and Dad were great friends. Anything we can do, let us know. Love to all of you.

“ I would like to offer my condolences to the Ingram family and also share a comforting promise from the Bible. At Revelation 21:4 where Jehovah God will wipe every tear from our eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.
