“ To the Family of Francis: I worked with Francis at Yokogawa. He was such a sweet man. He always kept me laughing. He can now keep the angels laughing. I know he will be missed. I am so sorry for your loss. LaRisa

“ Dear Guy Family, In the nine years I have worked in printing, typesetting your father's autobiography has to be the most fun I have had. He knew it was a big job when he brought it to me and was very patient through the entire process. We typed and added photos and proofread til we were bleary eyed to get this done in time for Christmas. But I enjoyed every minute of it. He was kind and friendly every time he was here. I am saddened to know that we will no longer be working on any other projects...he was a fun person. He loved his family, his dogs, his neighbors, church and friends. He believed in working hard and living right. I think he has accomplished both. I will dearly miss him.....don't think of him as passing on. The angels took him home. Please stop by the office before you leave to go home....I have something for you.

“ To the family of Francis; I worked for a lot of years with your Dad at Yokogawa. He was always a kind gentleman and always treated the woman he worked with a lot respect. He will be missed. We know your Dad is with our Lord. Take comfort in that as you miss him each day.
