

Frank B. Muscarnero

December 19, 1939 - May 16, 2025

Frank Bernard Muscarnero, age 85, passed away at his home in LaGrange, Georgia, on May 16, 2025. He was born on December 19, 1939, in Jersey City, New Jersey, to the late Joseph Muscarnero and Angelina Giordano Muscarnero. He is also preceded in death by his wife, Gloria Diane Muscarnero, and son Frank Muscarnero; brother Dominic; and stepson Timothy King.

Frank joined the Army in 1961 and served our country honorably until 1963. Above all, Frank was a loving father, grandfather, great-grandfather, and brother.

The family will have a private celebration of life at a later date.

Frank is survived by his children Joseph Muscarnero, Sheila Dewan, Dawn Disidoro, and Anthony Muscarnero; stepchildren Tammy Adcock and Terry King; Brother Andrew Muscarnero; sister Pauline Carbone; grandchildren Amy, Daniel, Dana, Brandy, Brandon, Christine, Dominick, Lou, Chad, Joshua, Elizabeth, and Veronica; and six great-grandchildren.

“ I remember the fun times, going to the boardwalk at Keansburg, Meadowlands race track, crabbing and my first concert to see ShaNaNa. A memory I always talk about was putting up our Christmas tree on his birthday, singing and being happy. Dad, you were Loved and will be missed. Sheila
