

Frank Watt, III

June 3, 1954 - October 26, 2022

Frank L. Watt, III was the son of the late Elizabeth Potts Watt and Frank Lazenby Watt, Jr. Born in Atlanta, Georgia on June 3, 1954, he graduated from Grady High School. He was an Eagle Scout and was a member of Druid Hills Baptist Church. He graduated in 1976 from Mercer University. He retired from the Fulton County Water Department and previously was employed at Trust Company Bank.

He was a good son, brother, uncle, and friend. Frank loved to read and work outdoors in the yard. He enjoyed talking to the neighbors while outside.

Survivors include his sister, Jane (Jim) Logan and his niece, Cynthia Logan. In lieu of flowers donations can be made to the American Heart Association or First United Methodist Church of Pine Mountain.

“ Frank was a faithful member of the Youth and College Ministry at Druid Hills Baptist Church in the 70's when I served as Youth Minister. He always had a kind word to say and smile on his face. He was kind, caring, in his Faith journey.

Frank was one of my best friends at Druid Hills Baptist Church. When we weren't singing in the choir, we always sat together during the services. I am so sorry for your loss, Jane. Condolences to your family.
