“ I write to offer my sincere condolences to the family and friends on the passing of your love one. When unforeseen occurrences befall us and the enemy death strikes our grief can be great. It also may seem unfair that sickness, which can cause death, has the power to take away someone that we love Yes, it is at times like this that we need comfort and support whether we are acquainted or not. I have found the Bible to be very comforting in this regard. At Revelation 21: 3, 4, our Heavenly Father has promised in the near future that “death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.” Our Heavenly Father has also promised that there will be a resurrection: “and I have hope toward God, which hope these [men] themselves also entertain, that there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous...” What a grand reunion that will be! You and I have the prospects of seeing our love ones again under the best condition possible, a beautiful Paradise earth; God’s original purpose for mankind. All of God's promises will come true, for it is impossible for Our Heavenly Father Jehovah to lie. I pray that these scriptures provide comfort to all of you. Once again, you have my sincere condolences -John 5:28 & 29, Psalms 37:29, Luke 23:43, Hebrews 6:18.

“Fred was one of those very special people that God put on this earth. I know he was one of the most well liked people who I ever met. I know he certainly never had an enemy, and he made friends with everyone he ever met. When I first met Fred over thirty years ago, I knew I had found a friend for life. I hope his family can take comfort in knowing he has gone home to be with God. Dabo Davis”

“Fred was one of my best friends growing up in Turin. He was a gentle spirit in those days as I am sure he was as an adult. I remember fondly camping by the pond behind the "Old House", fishing, camping and riding horses with Fred and Jim. I had heard that Fred had been ill for some time. I know that that he is in prefect health now. My best wishes go ut to all the family and friends.”
