“ *My Freddie
A wild Rose of the most rare form and beauty. The focal point in my bouquet of life, where now is a void of blackest tormenting persecution. Still, I am forced to endure! I crave to reunite with my soulmate for all time. It will be the final completion of the life cycle.....*

“ Dear Quillian and family. I was shocked and saddened when I read about Freddie's passing. We worked together at Hotel Marketing in Peachtree City for about three years. My fondest memory is when she offered to drive us to the Ritz Carlton orientation meetings for two days. I grew up in Atlanta but hated driving on the interstate so off we went with Freddie behind the wheel! We travelled to Buckhead and enjoyed our drive there almost as much as the meetings. We were allowed to have "high tea" there and many other lovely meals. We joked that we had gained a ton after those two days. Also, she related many times to our staff about Quillian's sweet marriage proposal. Sadly another lovely lady from our staff passed away about two months ago. My son met Freddie in 1996 and in those years he grew up and began driving and she offered sage advice on how to raise a teenager and I appreciate that until this day. Freddie adored her whole family and I think she had a Basset hound that she talked about back then. My son was as saddened as I was when he heard the sad news of her passing and both of us are praying for all of you. God bless.

“ One of the greatest memories I have of my grandmother is when I was a kid, we would go to powers to pick yellow daffidils. We would have a wonderful time just filling up a vase or basket full. I love and miss you grandmother.

“ Ms. Freddie was a very kind-hearted person. She and Quillian dedicated a lot of time to Elim Baptist Church whether it was decorating for VBS or cooking pintos and cornbread for our booth at the Powers Crossroads Festival each year. Anything Freddie was involved with deserved her very best and she always gave 110% of herself to be sure it was perfect. I will forever be grateful to her for the many hours she spent helping at PCR over the years and the kind things she always said to me. Rest in peace sweet lady. You will forever be missed.

“ I would see Freddie drive up at the Colonial bread store and think to myself OH LORD! here comes 30 minutes of trouble! After arguing over prices and checking dates and me wanting to choke her she would pull out a fried pie ,give it to me and start laughing. What a fun women. The world needs more people like Freddy.I am so glad I got to know her.Look out Jesus you just got a handful! Scott Horne
