“ So sorry for your loss. I worked with Gail and Jim at Ascot. The place was so small we were all like family. Just couldn't believe it when I got the news. Praying for your family during your time of loss. Just know that she is with Jim again and both of them are watching over all of you now. I know she loved all of you with her whole heart. All she ever talked about was her family. God be with you all.

“ With my deepest sympathy to the entire Hall-Kennedy family. I went to high school with Gail and remember her fondly. I was not aware that she was living this close to Fayetteville. I have lived here almost 40 years and would have visited her had I known where she was. . Take comfort in the knowledge that one day you'll be together again. God bless and bring you peace.
