“ The smartest and greatest person I ever knew, and always a gentleman. Your story ended and you made our life wonderful. You gave us security and made us know you were always there no matter what.

There's not enough good words I can say about you. Loved you and Nell so much. You had your hands full with all of us. You made our life easier and beautiful. Even when you chewed half our butts off.

Thank you for letting me be a part of your life.

And to Betty Joy and Harold a big KUDOS to you two for taking such good care of him.

With Love Always, Brenda Faye

“ I only had the pleasure of being apart of your life for 2 years. Those 2 years was enough for me to create a friendship with a man whose shoes I only dream of filling. It took a short while for you to shake my hand, look me in my eye and tell me I was welcome at your house at anytime. From that point on.. he was my buddy. The funny stuff he would say to the no nonsense straight to the point stuff he would say... I got a lil something from all of it. I'll miss you buddy. I would ask you how it's going up there... but you would just tell me same ol, same ol... Till we meet again "Bossman." Corey

“ I really don't know where to start or the words to put. You was the best grandfather I could ever ask for you never gave up on me. And I'm truly blessed for that. We would always joke and say I was your favorite one but deep down I know we all was. just playing. No truly I'm so happy you are with grandma. And not a day has gone by that it don't hurt me that i can't just run up and hug you. You was more then a grandfather to me you was a father figure to me. And I will truly miss that more then life itself. Thank you for everything in life even when I was not doing my best thank you for never giving up on me and the kids.
Love always scrumpy.

“ Daddy I miss you. You were always larger than life..a force to be reckoned with for sure. Your heart was so pure and while your rough exterior served as a deterrent for those who knew you, once they saw through it, was the most extraordinary part of you. It was supernatural how loving you were, how forgiving, and how you never gave up on so many of us even though we often weren't worthy of it. The void you've left behind will never be filled but we will do our best to make you proud and I'm over the moon that you're back with my sweet momma again.
