“ I'm George Wayne Harkins oldest granddaughter, and I loved my grandad. He was never good with physical contact and he had difficulty showing emotions at times, but I never doubted that he loved me. It warms my heart to come back years later and see that he's not forgotten, to see how many people's lives he touched. I want to enlist in the military after I graduate to carry on in my grandad's footsteps. I miss my grandad every second of everyday, but seeing how many people cared about him, how many people he helped make things just a bit easier
