“ My deepest sympathies to the Oliver and Kimmerer families. Louis was a reliable neighbor and good friend. Louis was always helping me by loaning me tools, providing much-needed advice on lawn and yard maintenance, and cheerfully sharing his home-grown tomatoes and vegetables every summer. Louis was kind, encouraging and helpful in many ways-especially when I was out of work for an extended period. Louis was a humble man with a good sense of humor. He would wonder out loud how I could wear shorts in the middle of the winter when I was in the yard working. I relished his good-natured joking about my attire, and just reminiscing about our friendly bantering puts a smile on my face. Louis was a good man with impeccable character, and that's saying a lot these days. I will miss him very much, and will be praying that God comforts and strengthens those who loved him so much. Most Sincerely, Phil Vardakis

“ Sandra, I was deeply saddened by the news of Louis' passing. Some of my fondest memories are of Louis as one of my closet friend as teenagers and for years after. I'll always feel that my life would have been richer if life had not taken us in different directions.
