“ Robyn, Walt, and Suzy’s extended family: First, I wish to say that despite my husband, Charles Stone having predeceased Suzy, (May 10 of last year) I am sending this for both Charles and me. I met Suzy on 11/17/1991, and have loved her since. Charles, Doc, Suzy and I had dinner every other Friday night for many, many years. Doc always wanted to go to Big Lots and Target after our meal. He would look at Dyson vacuum cleaners every time, but would ultimately decide that they were “too darned expensive.” Finally, Charles, in desperation, told Doc that he would buy him the vacuum cleaner if we could please just go to different stores. It is hard to think of one without thinking of the other, as theirs was a marriage that is hard to find. Robyn, over the 22 years that your Mother and I spent lots of time together, I learned many things. The primary thing was that she loved you with such fierce devotion that it helped me be a better parent to our son. And she adored Walt. Knowing Suzy Reeves, spending time with her, and sharing our thoughts taught me more about a life well lived than anyone or anything has since. Sadly, I was not informed of her passing. I heard it today at the doctors office. I am so very sorry to have missed her funeral and thereby my chance to pay my respects.
