

Gerald Kerlin

October 10, 1956 - June 17, 2017

Gerald "Gerry" Kerlin of Newnan, GA, passed away on Saturday, June 17, 2017, at the age of 60.

Gerry was the son of William and Patricia Kerlin, originally from Arizona and Maryland, but resident of Newnan for 30 years. Family was the most important thing to Gerry, and he leaves behind his wife, Ann, two children, two grandchildren, and two fur babies Chloe and Cocoa. His daughter Amy is married to Marius, and their children are Will and Anna of Sharpsburg. Gerry's son Austin is married to Jennifer and they live in Carrollton. Gerry also was survived by his mother, Patricia Kerlin Hines, nine brothers and sisters, and lots of beloved nieces and nephews.

He was passionate about music, sports and working in his garage. When he was in high school he punted a football completely across the football field and was instantly recruited onto the Varsity team. He played college basketball on scholarship and became a licensed A&P aircraft mechanic. Gerry's love of aircraft led to a 30-year career working as an aircraft mechanic for Eastern Airlines, Northwest Airlines, and Omni International as well as serving as Maintenance Control for Transmeridian Airlines and at Air Tran. In addition, he owned a local auto repair service for several years. His first well-paying job was playing drums in a band as a teenager, and he continued to play music with friends throughout his life.

“ I met Gerry when I was a little kid. He was this cool older guy dating my sister, driving a Mustang, and playing guitar. I idolized him - especially because he played guitar. I talked to Gerry and told him I would like to play. He said if I wanted it, and was willing to put in the practice and work, I should go for it. Gerry had natural talent, but also sought out help from a guitar teacher for something specific he wanted to learn. He helped connect me with his guitar teacher, and for three years I took lessons and I practiced, but it became apparent to me that there are those who can, and those who wished they could. I fell in the latter category. The lesson I took away from Gerry is if you have a dream, go for it. If you want it and work hard to have it, that dream can be yours for the taking. That's what I learned from Gerry, and while my dream of being a guitar hero never materialized, I applied that to other areas of my life and would often think of Gerry telling me to work hard at it, never let anyone tell you that you can't do it, and just go for it. Don't be afraid to ask for help when you need it, and take a minute to help someone else when they need it.

Gerry was my role model in that way. He was the best "big brother" ever, and Gerry is my "guitar hero."

“ Dear Ann, Amy, Austin and family, I am so sorry to hear the news of Gerry's Passing. He was a more than a great friend to me, he was a brother in music. He was the first musician I played with after I moved here from N.Y. to work with NWA. He was a very humble and gentle person, that would always offer you anything that he had. He had a love for people that showed everyday. I am so blessed to have had Gerry as my friend, Co worker, and brother in music. The memories I will cherish most are the times we would play music at his home, with friends from NWA, neighbors, and his family.

To my friend Gerry, God bless you, we will miss you dearly. You are now in Gods Hands.

Our deepest Sympathy,

“ I tried to find a photo of a recent silly memory of Gerry but didn't have one. At Robert's wedding, Gerry tied my camera to his cane and walked through the reception with it suspended in the air. It was his own version of a Selfie Stick!!!
