“ Ann, Tiffany just called to tell me about the loss of Gerald. I am so sorry. Never a good time to loose your spouse but the holidays make the loss more painful. (I lost my husband on 12/13 2001). It is such a comfort to know no more pain, confusion, etc. but at peace and home with their Lord. Wiish I could give you a hug and be there to support you. My prayers are with you and your family. When you feel like talking, give me a call or let me know when you feel like going out to lunch, I'll drive up and we can go for lunch.

“ Family, may God, the father of tender mercies, comfort and help you to progress through each day. Find comfort in your cherished memories and in knowing that God "is close to the brokenhearted." (Psalms 34:18). Our sincere sympathy to all of you.

“ Ann, Just wanted to let you know we are praying that you and your family will feel the loving arms of our Savior around each of you. Ed always loved visiting with Gerald when we were at WMU events. He said it just isn't the same when Gerald not there. I could always get Ed to attend with me when he thought Gerald would be there. He will be missed by many.
