

Geraldine Greeson Fowler

December 20, 1925 - October 14, 2022

On Friday, October 14, Geraline "Jerrye" Fowler, beloved wife, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, aunt and friend, passed away. She was ninety-six.

Born to James Whit and Pauline Greeson, Jerrye graduated from Murray County High School in 1941. She taught elementary school in 1942 and went on to work at Bell Aircraft in Marietta, Georgia in 1944 as a production management specialist building the B-29 bomber. After the war, she settled in Cobb County in 1947, and worked in a variety of professional and entrepreneurial jobs to include payroll specialist at Fort McPherson and Dobbins Air Force Base, and as management specialist to wholesale and retail carpet businesses. Later she built and ran a successful business for twenty years with her husband, Lewis Fowler, as the owner of "The Dugout," a well-known and frequented bait and tackle shop in Kennesaw, Georgia.

Jerrye was known for her quick wit, generous spirit and faith. She was an active member in her community, leading bible studies, church committees, managing local election stations and socializing with her many friends made through the YMCA and Brookdale Senior Living in Newnan, Georgia.

Jerrye is survived by her sons, David and Roger, grandchildren, David Jr. and Caitlin, and great-grandchildren, Jordan, Sebastian, Winslow and Adeline.

“ Mrs. Fowler loved many things, but what I got to see in this last phase of her life, was how much she loved to paint pictures and exquisite flowers and birds in her books. She showed me many of these pictures and seemed to delight in creating them. I'm glad to know she felt joy in this creativity.

I know that even though there is joy in the homegoing, there is sorrow in your loss. Thinking of you at this tender time.

*Love,

My mom and Jerrye were the best friends... in the last 4 years of my mom's life. So, she became my friend as well. How sorry I am for the family...as you face these days of grieving and loss.

Mom and Jerrye shared laughter and enjoyed each other's company...so that when my mother was in her last days/ hours and Jerrye came to visit , mom lit up and was the most animated she'd been the whole last few days.

*David and Roger,
I just heard tonight that your mother had left this world and I want you to know she made an impression on me. My mother was Ellie at your mother's table at Brookdale, and your mother took me in as a friend, too. How sorry I am that you've lost your mother. She was such fun and absolutely as sharp as a tack.*

A comforting thought is that Mom and Jerrye have met again in Heaven.

*May God comfort you and your family as you grieve your loss.
