

Guy Millette

June 8, 1944 - June 22, 2026

Guy Jean Millette, 82, of Newnan, Georgia, passed away Monday, June 22, 2026, at Piedmont Hospital. He was born on June 8, 1944, in Niagara Falls, Canada.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Joseph and Marie Jeanne Millette, and his sister, Lise Millette

Guy was the oldest child of 5 siblings, Pierre Millette (Bernadette), Jean Millette (Goody), Yolande Lissette (Peter), and Michelle Millette.

Guy grew up in Timmins, Ontario, a small mining town far north of Ontario. He moved to Ontario in 1959, where he went to high school and was involved in many sports. He was an All-Star high school football player as a wide receiver and played high-level amateur Baseball in Toronto and Montreal. In his last year there, he played on a professional team all while being an exceptional golfer, which was his major love.

Guy moved to the Bahamas around 1964 and then to Florida, where he started several Goodyear Tire Stores.

He met his wife, Lynn Millette, in 1992 at church in West Palm Beach, Florida. They moved to Alpharetta, Georgia, in 1996, and relocated to Newnan, Georgia, in 1998 to start Newnan Station Goodyear.

He retired from Newnan Station Goodyear and spent time playing golf and with his family, the two things he loved most in life.

He is survived by his wife of 34 years, Lynn Lemieux Millette, Zack Boggs, son, Ana Boggs, daughter-in-law, and three grandchildren, Lucas Boggs, Bella Boggs, and Landon Boggs.

“ Dear Lynn I was shocked and saddened to read about Guy’s passing. I certainly would have been at his funeral if I had been in town. I have many memories of Guy from small faith sharing to the Arnold Dickinson Memorial Golf Tournament. I will keep him and all the family in my prayers. Sincere sympathy, Barb Dickinson
