

Gwen Wallace Couch

June 18, 1942 - October 17, 2015

Gwen Wallace Couch gently left this world for that glorious reunion with her Lord and all those who had gone on before her on Saturday, October 17, 2015. What a glorious day that must have been for her! She entered this life on June 18, 1942 and was the daughter of the late Paul Wallace and Ann Duncan Knight. After high school Gwen spent some years at C&S Bank where she worked in the loan department and became a mainstay to many of the bank's commercial customers. She found her true place in life later for she was a faithful employee of the Coweta County School System for 20 years at The Burwell Program at Westside School. She cherished the school and her opportunity of service there. Her faith found a resting place at her beloved Trinity Baptist Church where she was a member for thirty years. In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her son Ken Couch. As the matriarch of her family, she was the loving wife of Buddy Couch for 52 years. She was a proud mother of her son, Kevin and her daughter by marriage, Julie. Oh, and how she loved her granddaughters Amber and Autumn Couch. Her furry friend "Little Buddy" was always close at hand. Also surviving are her siblings Marsha Gray, Paul Wallace, Jr., Mark Wallace and Ray Wallace and his wife Becky. There is an extended family of cousins and nieces. Arrangements are by McKoon Funeral Home at 38 Jackson Street where the family will receive friends on Tuesday, October 20th between 3:00 PM and 5:00 PM. A memorial service to honor her exemplary life will be at 5:00 PM in the McKoon chapel with Reverend Kevin Couch and Reverend Rick Duncan officiating. Those who wish to do so may honor Gwen's memory by a memorial gift to Trinity Baptist church P.O. Box 218 Newnan, GA 30264. Online condolences may be expressed at www.mckoon.com. McKoon Funeral Home 770-253-4580.

“ I am a friend of Autumn's, and I only got to meet Mrs. Couch through wonderful stories of her. From these stories, I learned that she was a women of strength, love, and altruism. I know that she will be greatly missed, and my own heart hurts for those who will miss her most. I extend my most sincere condolences.

“ Buddy, I was blessed to spend several hours with Gwen at one of her therapy sessions and I left her praying that I could have her beautiful spirit, her love of God and the love she had for her family and friends. May God hold all of you in his tender loving care.

“Buddy, Kevin and family, I am so sorry that all of you had to go through this sad time. Gwen was a good friend and cousin. We had some happy times together, especially before our babies were born. I cherish those times and regret not spending time with her after I returned to Newnan. You are in my prayers daily. I love you all.
